

FEATHERLIGHT, SIMPLY STRONG

Cooler Master's ErgoStand Air is a new addition to our ErgoStand Series. The lightweight notebook stand features a hollow frame structure constructed with aluminum alloy for ample airflow and ventilation as well as added thermal dissipation. It is designed to fold flat for easy storage and portability, as well as keeping your workspace clean and tidy. Set your perfect viewing angle with the adjustable 5 ergonomic height settings for optimal posture to reduce body soreness and eye strain when using your laptop over long durations. The ErgoStand Air is portable and versatile allowing you to take it wherever you need, whether it be your home, office, meeting room, coffee shop, or wherever your work or entertainment takes you.
