

MASTERLIQUID 360 ATMOS WHITE

Cooler Master is unveiling the next generation of liquid cooling engineering with the MasterLiquid 360 Atmos White, our new AIO liquid cooler, now available in an ice-cool white colorway. With the Atmos series, we are introducing a multitude of modern designs and features. Our signature dual chamber pump has been refined for enhanced cooling synergy. The latest SickleFlow Edge ARGB fans are included to silently improve air flow and are preinstalled to simplify installation and the overall user experience. The pump cover is manufactured from eco-friendly recycled plastics and features a transparent, removable top cover that you can customize with your own logo or badge. The Atmos supports Addressable Gen 2 RGB for the most versatile and vibrant lighting, compatible with both our MasterPlus and MasterControl software. Cooler Master is leaping into the future with the Atmos series.
