

ARENA Fratello Gaming Desk

The Arena Fratello is next in line for the Arozzi's Gaming Desk series! Arozzi's smaller Gaming Desk now comes in the same successful curved design as the original Arena Gaming Desk. Measuring at 114 cm x 76cm x 72,5cm the Arena Fratello is ideal for those living in an apartment or smaller spaces. This new gaming desk is covered with a full-surface mousepad which is crafted with water-resistant microfiber and anti-slip rubber bottom. The interchangeable machine-washable mousepad has 3 cut-outs for monitor attachments as well as a top of the line cable management system that contributes to a tight mesh basket underneath. With durable steel legs and MDF board, the Arena fratello will upgrade your setup with an intricate cable management system, superb mousepad, & outstanding design.
